

Engage the Advocates

Share graphics for social channels

Social media was also a strong advocacy platform for the campaign, generating petition sign-ups and injecting the AAMC's message through student social networks. Our social media campaign was launched with shareable graphics and supported with paid media. By making the graphics eye-catching and easy to engage with, the community of advocates rapidly grew and beat earlier benchmarks.