

Modern Healthcare

THE BIGGEST LOSERS

Hospitals that were estimated to have lost the most Medicare inpatient reimbursement in fiscal 2009 as a result of not qualifying for the full annual payment update for not properly reporting quality data. For a full list hospitals, please see the online version of this story on modernhealthcare.com.

Hospital	Estimated lost reimbursement*
Pacific Alliance Medical Center, Los Angeles	$595,937
Columbia Memorial Hospital, Hudson, N.Y.	$395,360
Alameda County Medical Center, Oakland, Calif.	$393,136
United Medical Center, Washington	$368,656
OakBend Medical Center, Richmond, Texas	$332,350
Pacifica Hospital of the Valley, Sun Valley, Calif.	$275,595
RHD Memorial Medical Center, Dallas	$213,731
Community and Mission Hospital of Huntington Park (Calif.)	$192,552
St. Rose Dominican Hospitals-San Martin, Las Vegas	$150,457
Tuba City (Ariz.) Regional Health Care Corp.	$137,488
Montclair (Calif.) Hospital Medical Center	$134,955
Wahiawa (Hawaii) General Hospital	$133,674
Renaissance Hospital Terrell (Texas)	$127,063
Good Samaritan Hospital, Bakersfield, Calif.	$110,165

*Equals 2% of the estimated inpatient Medicare revenue as calculated by American Hospital Directory

Source: CMS, American Hospital Directory